Introduction

Kimberley Calling is a staffing initiative from Catholic Education Western Australia (CEWA) that assists principals in the recruitment of teachers who will thrive as they live, learn and teach in the thirteen Catholic school communities of the Diocese of Broome. The Diocese stretches across the Kimberley region of Western Australia, and our schools are located in major regional centres, small towns and remote communities.

We are seeking teachers, open to the experience of learning, living and serving in the Catholic school communities of the Kimberley, who will inspire and engage each student of the Broome Diocese through the provision of a quality Catholic education.

The things that I'm learning now at school will help me remember that I'm smart and that I should never give up... in the future we can remember that we got here because of our teachers.
