Christ the King Catholic School, Djarindjin, Lombadina

Kindergarten – Year 10

Christ the King Catholic School, located in the Djarindjin, Lombadina First Nations Community on the Dampier Peninsula, is home to the Bardi coastal people.

The school blends Catholic faith with deep spirituality connected to the land and First Nations traditions. Emphasising care for oneself, others, and the environment, students learn the importance of relationships and the value of every individual. Supported by peers, family, and teachers, they become strong, resilient, and confident in their learning.

Teaching in Djarindjin, Lombadina, Western Australia, offers a unique lifestyle deeply connected to First Nations heritage. Located on the scenic Dampier Peninsula, it boasts pristine beaches, turquoise waters, and a rich First Nations culture. Experience a close-knit community and engage in outdoor activities like fishing and kayaking, with the added benefit of convenient access to a nearby swimming beach. Djarindjin, Lombadina, is perfect for passionate educators who want to make a meaningful impact while immersing themselves in the cultural richness and natural beauty of this remote area.
