Holy Rosary School, Derby

Kindergarten – Year 6

Holy Rosary School is a vibrant Catholic primary school community in Derby, dedicated to cultivating self-pride, fostering healthy wellbeing, and encouraging students to reach their full potential.

The school aims to build resilience, along with emotional and social intelligence, equipping students to face the future with pride, respect, and hope. Students engage in learning activities that progress from teacher-directed instruction to independent application, allowing them to apply these skills to real-world problems to provide a holistic learning experience.

Teaching in Derby, Western Australia, offers an enriching and adventurous lifestyle. Nestled in the Kimberley region, Derby boasts breathtaking landscapes and a welcoming, tight-knit community where you can make a meaningful impact on students' lives. Enjoy outdoor activities like fishing, boating, and exploring nearby gorges and national parks. The town also offers excellent facilities such as a gym, courts, swimming pool, and golf club. Derby is perfect for passionate educators seeking professional growth and an immersive cultural experience in one of Australia's most unique and picturesque regions.
