

Luurnpa Catholic School, Balgo

Primary and Secondary

Luurnpa Catholic School, located in the Wirrimanu First Nations Community of Balgo, provides a meaningful Catholic education through collaboration with local families.

Acknowledging parents as the first educators, the school nurtures the spiritual, cognitive, emotional, social, and physical growth of students. Guided by faith, service, and community, Luurnpa celebrates Two-Way Learning, honouring the rich cultural and linguistic backgrounds of its students to prepare them for active contribution to the local Balgo community and the wider Australian community.

Teaching in Balgo, Western Australia, offers a unique and enriching experience. Nestled in the stunning landscapes of the Kimberley region, Balgo is a close-knit community with a deep cultural heritage. Educators can immerse themselves in the rich traditions of the Wirrimanu First Nations Community while enjoying outdoor adventures and breathtaking natural scenery. With a community swimming pool and an onsite gym, staff can stay fit and healthy without having to leave the locality. Balgo's serene environment and supportive community make it an ideal place for personal and professional growth, offering a truly fulfilling lifestyle for those passionate about making a difference.
