St Joseph's School, Wyndham

Kindergarten – Year 6

Inspired by Mary MacKillop, St Joseph's School is committed to excellence in education and pastoral care, fostering well-being, strong values, and inclusivity for all cultures and community members.

Valuing parents as primary educators, the school respects cultural diversity and fosters two-way learning. St Joseph's School is committed to enabling personal and academic excellence, supporting both staff and students to achieve their full potential.

Teaching in Wyndham, Western Australia, provides a distinctive lifestyle amidst breathtaking outback landscapes and a close-knit community. Located in a warm climate, Wyndham provides opportunities for outdoor activities such as hiking, fishing and river cruises, along with a community swimming pool. Educators can make a meaningful impact on students' lives while fully engaging with the rich local culture. Wyndham is ideal for those seeking professional growth and a vibrant, immersive experience in one of Australia's most scenic regions.
