Warlawurru School, Red Hill

Kindergarten – Year 6

Warlawurru Catholic School is dedicated to nurturing Gospel values and First Nations spirituality in students through a two-way learning approach.

Situated in a vibrant school community, the school provides a supportive environment where Jaru Language and Culture are deeply integrated and celebrated. This commitment fosters a rich educational experience that honours both spiritual and cultural heritage, ensuring that students engage meaningfully with their traditions while growing academically and personally.

Teaching in Halls Creek, Western Australia, offers a distinctive and fulfilling lifestyle. Located in the heart of the Kimberley, Halls Creek is surrounded by striking landscapes, including ancient gorges and stunning red desert scenery. The town features a warm, outback climate and a close-knit community with rich First Nations heritage, while the town recreation centre includes a gym, swimming pool, and basketball courts. Educators can enjoy unique outdoor adventures such as exploring local rock formations, hiking, and cultural experiences while making a significant impact on students' lives. Halls Creek provides a blend of professional growth and an immersive experience in a remote setting.
