

Good Shepherd
Convent

The buildings which comprise the Catholic Education Office were established in stages from 1903 to the 1920s by the Good Shepherd Sisters. The Sisters lived through an ethos of prayer, example, kindness and devotion.

A beautiful Catholic Chapel for your special day

The Chapel of ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Timeless
elegance
& style

Located in the magnificent grounds of the Catholic Education Office, high on the hill in West Leederville, the Chapel's neo-gothic architecture evokes a sense of occasion befitting your wedding.

The Chapel and grounds are available for weddings only* on Saturdays and Sundays at the following times:

Chapel Opens/ Guests Arrive	Ceremony Starts	Depart Chapel Grounds
10:30am	11:00am	12:30pm
1.00pm	1:30pm	3:00pm
3:30pm	4:00pm	5:30pm

No weekday bookings are available. To ensure all weddings run smoothly these two hour time slots must be strictly adhered to. Please ensure your guests arrive and your ceremony starts at the times stated.

* Not available for baptisms or funerals

Celebration

The celebrant must be a Catholic priest. Please note that the Catholic Education Office does not have a resident priest and it is your responsibility to arrange a priest to officiate at your wedding.

To be married in the Chapel both parties must be free to marry and at least one party must be Catholic.

Booking fee

The fee includes the hire of the building, fresh flowers for the altar and the use of an electric keyboard, pipe organ#, CD or MP3 player.

If you arrange guest singers or musicians they are required to bring their own sound equipment.

Bookings

To book the Chapel please contact the receptionist at the Catholic Education Office on 9380 1800 during office hours. Once a tentative booking is made you will be required to return the signed application form and booking fee within four weeks to confirm your booking.
